

Songs for a Broken World

2. When God laughs

- 2nd favourite Psalm in New Testament (Acts 4, 13; Heb 1, 5; Rev 12, 19)
- 4 actions for living in a broken world

1. Recognise Rebellion v1-3

- The reason for the brokenness There is restless discontent with God
- Hate God so much that they misrepresent him v3
- Three ways people rebel anarchy, indifference, pretended interest
- If we do not recognise this as fundamentally rebellion, we will not understand the world

2. Listen to the Laughter v4-6

- God isn't pacing, or on red-alert he is seated and laughing
- Laughing because it's laughable (but not a laughing matter)

a) Rebellion is ridiculous v1

"Why do the nations conspire... in vain?"

b) He is seated and winning v4,5

- All he has to do is speak and they scatter
- c) Any 'defeat' turns out to be God's victory v6,7
- Acts 4:25,26 quotes v1-3 as referring to the crucifixion
- o Acts 13:33 quotes v7 as referring to the resurrection
- Every skirmish serves God's predetermined plan even the crucifixion
- We need to hear the laughter when the situation would cause despair

3. Realise the Son Wins v7-9

- Psalm foretells Jesus as a Warrior King
- This is his mandate to rule the world
- See the inevitability and extent of the Messiah's triumph

a) His Gospel will spread across the world v8

- o "I will..." Nothing can stop the Gospel
- \circ We've the responsibility & the right to tell everyone & go everywhere

b) The Nations will answer to him v9

O Quoted in Rev 19:15 – There will be no withstanding his judgment

4. Call people to Glad-hearted Surrender v10-12

- No exultant triumphalism we urge people to honour & serve Jesus
- Why? Because it brings great happiness "Blessed are all..."
- We escape from God by escaping to God "... who find refuge in him"
- Why trust him? Before he comes to dash in pieces, Jesus came and was dashed in pieces for us
- In a broken world the only lasting joy is found in serving the warrior king who gave his life for you.
